

Kagyū Sukha Chöling

CENTER FOR THE PRACTICE & STUDY OF TIBETAN BUDDHISM

KYABJÉ KALU RINPOCHE

TEACHES IN ASHLAND, OREGON SEPT 9-12, 2011

Kyabje Kalu Rinpoche, spiritual leader of the Shangpa lineage, will visit Ashland September 9th–12th, as a part of his first North American teaching tour. Kalu Rinpoche is one of the leaders of an exciting youth movement in Tibetan Buddhism that will inspire and change the way Dharma is perceived and practiced around the world. We invite you to join us for a series of events as Kyabje Kalu Rinpoche brings us his fresh perspective on timeless truth.

Rinpoche was born in 1990 at his monastery, Samdrub Darjay Chöling. He was officially recognized by H.E. Situ Rinpoche and H.H. Dalai Lama, and was enthroned at his monastery in 1993. He began formal studies with Bokar Tulku Rinpoche at age seven, and entered the traditional three-year retreat at age fifteen. He assumed leadership of the Shangpa lineage of Tibetan Buddhism in 2009, at the completion of his retreat. Rinpoche has given teaching tours in Asia and Europe in the last year.

Fiday, Sept 9th (8pm)

How to Free Your Heart, How to Free Your Mind

Saturday, Sept 10th (4:30pm)

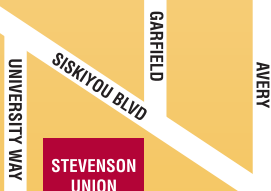

Refuge Ceremony and Bodhisattva Vow Ceremony (One Event)

Saturday, Sept 10th (7:30pm)

Kalu Rinpoche's Heart Advice

Tickets available at: www.brownpapertickets.com • Event Name: Kyabje Kalu Rinpoche • Tickets: $50 per teaching / $25 for students with ID

ALL EVENTS WILL BE HELD IN THE ROGUE RIVER ROOM AT STEVENSON UNION, SOUTHERN OREGON UNIVERSITY

These teachings are sponsored by Kagyu Sukha Chöling Buddhist Meditation Center

109 Clear Creek Drive Ashland, Oregon

ksc@mind.net | 541.552.1769 | www.kscAshland.org